

CIAO
FOR NOW
—Travel—

BESPOKE ITALY TRAVEL
THOUGHTFULLY DESIGNED

Tuscany Italy Luxury Travel Guide

Tuscany is one of Italy's most iconic regions, known for rolling hills, vineyards, historic hill towns, and exceptional food and wine. From Florence to the countryside of Chianti and Val d'Orcia, Tuscany offers some of the most beautiful landscapes and cultural experiences in Europe.

Where to Stay

- Rosewood Castiglion del Bosco - ultra luxury estate in Val d'Orcia
- Castello di Casole Belmond - restored castle surrounded by countryside
- Borgo Santo Pietro - boutique countryside estate with Michelin dining
- Il Borro Relais and Spa - elegant countryside estate owned by the Ferragamo family

Where to Eat

- Enoteca Pinchiorri Florence - three Michelin star fine dining
- Osteria Francescana-style countryside tasting menus (various estates)
- Dario Cecchini Steakhouse Panzano - famous Tuscan butcher restaurant
- La Bottega del 30 - celebrated restaurant in Villa a Sesta
- Arnolfo Colle Val d'Elsa - Michelin starred Tuscan cuisine

Top Experiences

- Wine tasting through Chianti and Brunello di Montalcino vineyards
- Explore Florence including the Duomo and Uffizi Gallery
- Visit hill towns such as San Gimignano, Montepulciano, and Pienza
- Drive through Val d'Orcia countryside landscapes

Suggested 7 Day Tuscany Itinerary

Day 1	Arrival in Florence. Check into hotel and explore the historic center.
Day 2	Visit the Florence Duomo, Uffizi Gallery, and Ponte Vecchio.
Day 3	Drive into Chianti countryside for wine tastings and vineyard lunches.
Day 4	Explore San Gimignano and Siena historic towns.
Day 5	Drive through Val d'Orcia visiting Pienza and Montepulciano.
Day 6	Relaxing countryside day at a Tuscan estate with wine and spa experiences.
Day 7	Return to Florence for shopping and final Tuscan dinner.

Tuscany Travel Notes

- Tuscany is best explored by car to reach hill towns and vineyards.
- Many luxury estates offer wine tastings and farm-to-table dining.
- Spring and fall are ideal seasons for visiting Tuscany.
- Florence works well as a starting point before exploring the countryside.

Ciao For Now Travel

For bespoke Italian itineraries, luxury hotels, and curated Tuscany experiences contact Ciao For Now Travel.